

Curriculum Vitae – Mr. Dale Johnstone

Roles

Chief Information Security Officer, PCCW Limited
Chairman ISMS International User Group (Hong Kong & Macau Chapter)
Member International Standards Organisation (ISO) (information security)

Qualifications

Masters of Business Administration (MBA)
Graduate Diploma Media, Communications and Information Technology Law
Bachelor of Business (Information Technology)

Mr. Dale Johnstone is professional recognised as one of Asia Pacific's foremost, respected and leading experts in information security management with nearly twenty years full-time professional information security experience in various industry sectors including Government, defence, law enforcement, finance, manufacturing, transportation and telecommunications.

Dale is currently employed as the Chief Information Security Officer with the PCCW Group, and maintains active memberships with a number of International Standards Bodies, including ISO which is responsible for the development of ISO 27001 ISMS family of standards , Chairman of the local Information Security Management Systems (ISMS) International User Group for Hong Kong and Macau, Chairman of the Organising Committee for the annual Information Security Summit (2003-2006), member of the ISMS IUG (UK), and member of the Standards Australia Committee responsible for information security management standards.