2.00 pm – 3.30 pm: Panel III - Giving Effect to the APEC Privacy Framework: Breakout Sessions

[This session will explore issues in implementing the APEC Privacy Framework's principles. This session will examine particular cases in detail and will be highly interactive. It will 'locate' the cases within the overview of the Principles provided by the first session. A 'whole of session' moderator will introduce the session in plenary including its structure and aims. As quickly as possible, the seminar will break into discussion groups. Each table will be given a different case note to consider. Their task will be to consider the facts of the case, not how it was resolved. Each table will be moderated by one of the panel members. Each table will be asked to discuss the case note, to identify which of the APEC Privacy Principles is relevant to the case and to suggest a way of resolving the problem consistent with the APEC Principles].
