Vice chair of Cybersecurity Sub-WG of EU Chamber of Commerce in China

List of Content

- Implementation of the PIPL
- Legal liability and enforcement updates
- Major impacts for businesses and individuals
- Practical steps for compliance and risk management

Implementation of the PIPL

China Data Law Regime

- “Three Pillars”

- Cybersecurity Law
- Data Security Law
- Personal Information Protection Law

- Other national laws
- Administrative regulations
- Industry rules
- National specifications
- Judicial interpretations

Personal Information Protection Law of China (PIPL)

Effective on 1 Nov 2021;
active enforcement actions
by regulators

Some similarities to GDPR, but with significant Chinese characteristics

Multiple administrative regulations, industry standards and judicial interpretations to provide guidance and implementation details

Who Are Covered?

How is PI Defined?

- Wide range
  - Any kind of information
  - Related to an identified or identifiable natural person
  - Sensitive PI: financial, health, biometric, PI of children <14yrs, etc.;
    - Wider scope than GDPR
    - Stricter compliance requirements

What Activities Are Covered?

Collection

Use

Transmission

Disclosure

Processing

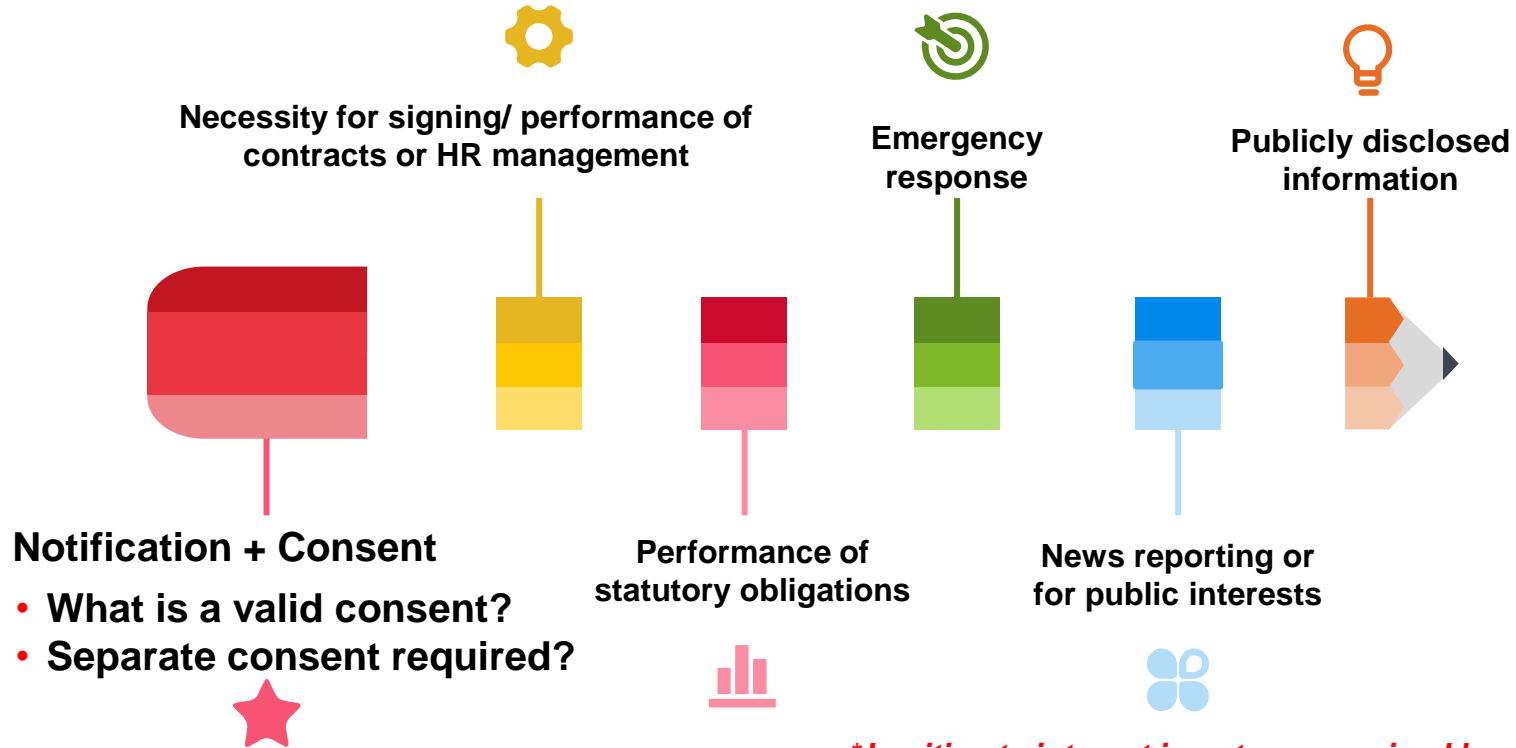

Storage

Provision

Deletion /
Destruction

Legal Principles and Basis – Legality, Appropriateness, Necessity, Fairness, Transparency and Minimisation

**Legitimate interest is not a recognised legal basis*

CIOs and Data Localisation

- Critical Information Infrastructure (CII):
  - Financial, energy, water, public utilities, telecom and information services, transportation, e-government AND “OTHER KEY INDUSTRIES”
- Personal Data and Important Data collected/generated during business operation in China should be stored in China
- Cross-border transfer of data is only allowed on the ground of necessary and has passed security assessment

*“other key industries or sectors, which can seriously harm national security or public interest, if destroyed or tampered with or if data is leaked”

Cross-Border Data Transfer Mechanism

- Three mechanisms fully established

Which CBDT Mechanism to Choose?

Security Assessment - Documents, Procedure and Timeline

Self-assessment report (govt template w/out change, comprehensive info expected)

Cross-border data transfer agreement or legally binding document

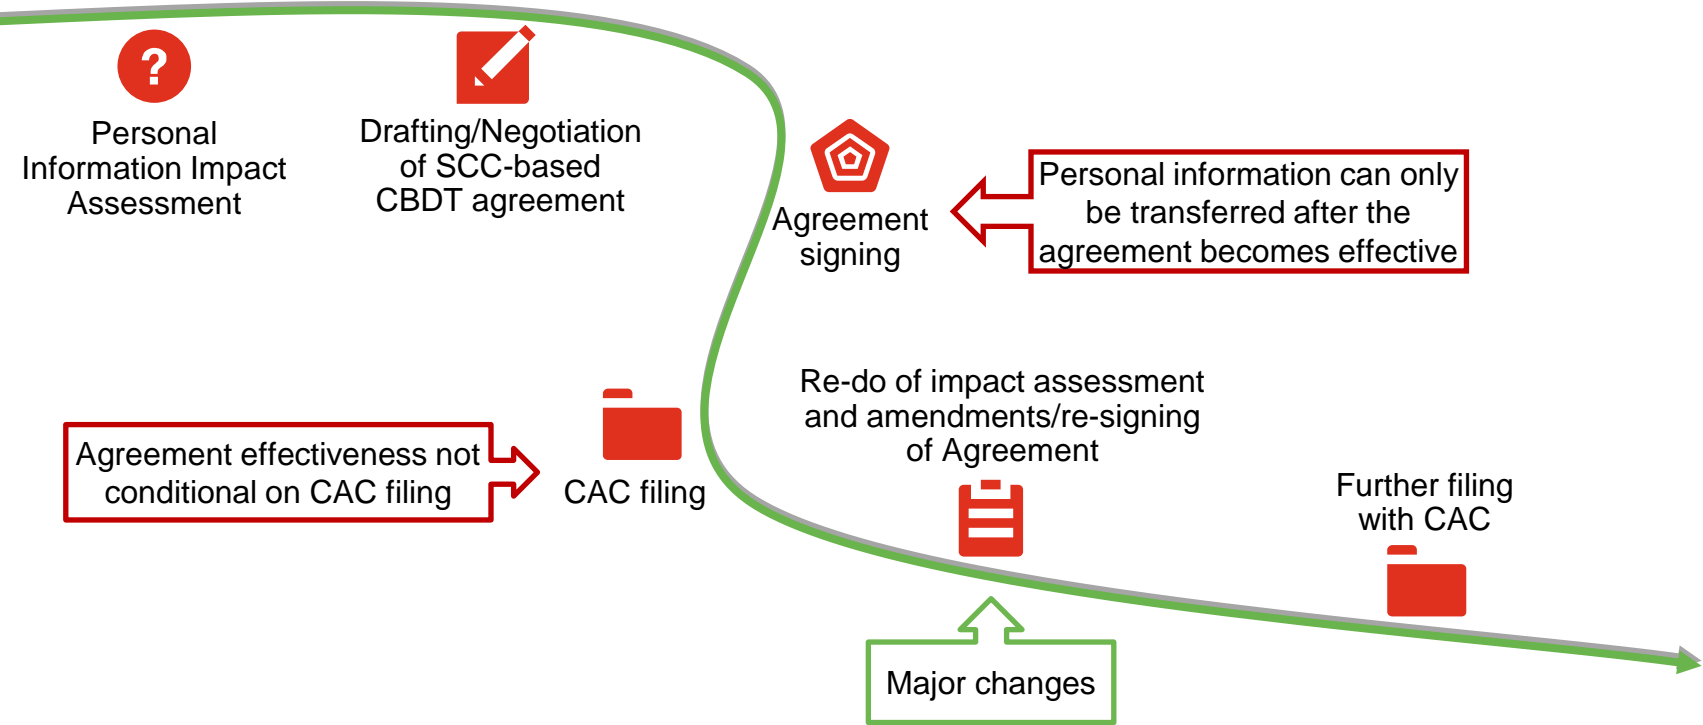

Submission to provincial CAC and final review by central CAC (2-4 months expected) Grace-period of 28 Feb expired, what to do now?

Hundreds of formal submissions to provincial CACs including MNCs and Chinese companies across sectors, esp automotive, aviation, banking, insurance, e-commerce, pharma, healthcare, retailing, tech, telecom, industrial automation, consumer brands, etc

Chinese SCCs (effective 1 June 2023)

Chinese SCCs – Easy to Use?

- SCC terms lift the compliance bar
- Comprehensive information to be collected from both China and foreign data recipients for impact assessment
- Challenges to synchronize China SCCs with global agreement adopted by MNCs
  - Different contract model
  - Lack of flexibilities on contractual terms
  - Governing law
  - Dispute resolution
- Effective on 1 June with grace-period until 30 Nov, enough time to be compliant?

Legal liability and enforcement updates

Legal Liabilities and Penalties

Enforcement

- Industry focus: health, medical, financial, telecom, e-commerce, consumer brands, transportation
- Significant penalties – USD1b fines + sanctions on senior executives
- Mobile Apps
  - Non-compliant privacy policy, excessive collection of PI, difficulty in de-register, forced reactivation
  - Thousands of Apps caught, order for rectification within given time, removal from app stores
- Active investigations in Beijing, Shanghai, Shenzhen, Zhejiang and Sichuan
- Stronger privacy awareness from the public
  - Litigations and consumer claims
  - Employee claims
- Vigorous enforcement anticipated with new data enforcement regulations to come into force on 1 June 2023 and significant increase of penalties in draft Revised Amendments to the CSL

Major impacts for businesses and individuals

Key Implications for Businesses and Individuals

GDPR Compliant ≠ PIPL Compliant

- Impacts on business model, products and services and need for compliance analysis
- IT infrastructure deployment and contracting structure

- Data subject's rights
- In response to whistleblowing and claims by individuals

- Data compliance to be integrated into day-to-day business operations
- Non-compliance can result in hefty penalties and other significant legal, business and reputational risks

- Call to action for complying with CBDT legal requirements and other compliance steps
- Make good faith efforts and document them

Practical steps for compliance and risk management

What Pitfalls to Avoid

“This can’t be right. Does this apply to us?”

“This targets Chinese Tech giants. We don’t need to bother. ”

“The legal requirements are not clear and some implementing rules are not finalized. Let’s just wait and see.”

“We are GDPR compliant. GDPR is stricter than PIPL, so we are safe.”

“We need to store all data in China!”

What Practical Steps to Take

Compliance health-check

- Data mapping
- Compliance gap analysis
- Strategy aligned with business objectives and priorities
- Special attention to regulated sectors and high risk aspects

Draft/Update privacy documentation

- Privacy policy
- Consent
- Employment contract and handbook
- DPAs

Cross-border data transfer

- Determine appropriate mechanism for cross-border data transfer
- Take immediate compliance action for security assessment, PIPIA, SCC contract terms and other required docs
- Allow sufficient lead time for information collection and coordination, documents preparation, response to enquiries from authorities

Data breach response

- Notification to data subjects and regulators
- Prepare data breach pack
- Data breach drill
- Insurance

Ongoing compliance and risk management

- Build up compliance system
- Learn from enforcement lessons
- Training
- Keep close watch on regulatory, legal and technical developments

► Innovation

We take a more "human" approach to innovation. Our philosophy is "people, process, and then technology." We listen to our clients and encourage co-creation and collaboration, to create solutions that truly meet their needs.

Featured in the Financial Times
as one of the top 20
most innovative law firms in North America.

► Technology

Our global team is dedicated to creating smart solutions to meet our clients' needs through partnership with our lawyers and our clients. We offer technology-based solutions to streamline our service delivery to our clients while simultaneously improving efficiency and quality.

► Sector and industry approach

Our extensive legal experience covers a range of industry sectors. We focus on future outcomes, where our clients and their businesses want to go, and the issues that they might face.

We live and breathe our clients' sectors and have an informed point of view on what's coming around the corner.

► Reed Smith GlobalSolutions

Reed Smith Global Solutions re-thinks legal services. By re-evaluating our clients' legal needs together, we can clearly determine what's valuable to them. Complex tasks can be simplified, opportunities for efficiencies can be discovered, and continuous improvement and progress can be built in. Evolution becomes first nature through Reed Smith Global Solutions, freeing our clients up to grow their businesses now and in the future.

► Responsible business

Being a responsible business is vitally important to us. It makes us a better law firm and a better place to work. It helps us on the world stage and in our local communities. We focus our responsible business efforts in four key areas:

- Community volunteering
- Green matters
- Pro bono
- Developing our people

In 2022, our lawyers across the U.S. and EMEA regions devoted 92,000 hours to pro bono.

► Diversity, equity and inclusion

We have cultivated a working environment where we value, reward, respect and celebrate everyone's diversity, hiring the very best talent, which makes us a stronger workforce and ultimately leads to the best results for our clients.

We are transforming our culture through "tone at the top" messaging and innovative training, mentoring, and sponsorship programming focused on inclusive behavior across our global network.

Achieved "Mansfield Certification Plus" status for 2022 – the 5th year in a row that our longstanding commitment to diversity, equality and inclusion has been recognized

Reed Smith delivers exceptional expertise and value to our matters, and is distinguished among its peers by a real commitment to diversity. They drive the diversity conversation with us.
